WELCOME

Wow! What a bold start to 2020—music, screenings, comedy, and even a magician.

Two years ago, This is the Kit sold out. In March, we're delighted to welcome back 6Music favourite Rozi Plain, who plays in the band, for her own show.

Another extraordinary musician joins us and it's for the first time in his 50 year career. Pee Wee Ellis was James Brown's bandleader. With him, Pee Wee co-wrote songs such as Cold Sweat—widely regarded as the first true funk track. The jazz and funk saxophonist also worked for many years with Van Morrison, appearing on a dozen of his albums.

We're pleased that campaigning comic Mark Thomas is visiting Lyme as part of his major UK tour in March.

With songs from pop icon Cyndi Lauper, I can't wait for our screening of Kinky Boots, filmed live in the West End.

Three classic episodes from the much loved radio series, The Navy Lark are brought to life in a new theatre production live onstage. The original was a British comedy classic with Leslie Phillips, Ronnie Barker, and Jon Pertwee.

Join us for a special night out at the Marine this season!
