VISITORS' INFORMATION

Normally the bar and box office open an hour before an event starts.

The start time is when the event begins, which could be a support act. Unless stated, events have unreserved seating.

For more detailed information, please see the Your Visit page on our website at marinetheatre.com.

PROGRAMME

This booklet is made from recycled paper and is carbon neutral.

ADDRESS

Marine Theatre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset. DT7 3QB.

CONTACT

For further information please visit marinetheatre.com or call our office on 01297 442394.

PARKING

We have no car-park but there is a number within very close walking distance, many of which are free after 6.00 P.M. There is a map with nearby parking on our website.

ACCESSIBILITY

ACCESS

We have level access to our auditorium and downstairs bar. There is an accessible toilet.

Unfortunately our upstairs bar is not accessible by wheelchair.

Our staff and volunteers are happy to help you to enjoy your visit, so please advise us of accessibility requirements by emailing office@marinetheatre.com.

HEARING LOOP

Our hearing loop lets you hear the performance more clearly through your hearing aid. You'll need to switch your hearing aid or CI to the hearing loop setting (also known as the 'T' setting or program). The signal from the hearing loop should cover all seating areas.

CARERS

Carers receive a complimentary ticket when accompanying a ticket holder, but should bring proof of carer's status to the event.

To ask for a carer's ticket please email office@marinetheatre.com

SEATING

We can reserve space for wheelchairs and mobility scooters at shows. Seating at standing shows is available for those with access needs; please ask a member of staff.

DOGS

Assistance animals are permitted in the Marine, but pets are not.

MORE?

Tell us ways we can be more accessible! Email suggestions for consideration to office@marinetheatre.com

COMMUNITY

Over the last five years we've been making the Marine an even more important part of the community by widening participation in arts and culture. We welcome performers from diverse backgrounds, so all members of the community are represented on stage. Recently we've relaunched the Marine Youth Theatre with bursaries, alongside Free Drama Days - an introduction to performing for children. There is something for everyone each month. We make sure there are free and cheap events. Increasingly we've created opportunities to perform or get involved with Community Plays, Sunday Sessions, Senior Creative sessions, volunteering, and Play Reading Groups. But if you just want to sit and watch, that's fine too!

VOLUNTEERING

Whether it's ushering, hosting performers, or even DIY, there are lots of ways to support the running of our busy venue. If you have time to spare and would like to get involved, please email friends@marinetheatre.com.

WELCOME

Did you come to the Rep Theatre in August? We've received so many favourable comments that we've invited the troupe to return. They'll be staging A Christmas Carol here; don't be a Scrooge - buy a ticket now.

Well before Christmas arrives, there is a lot to look forward to. Many legends appear in the programme this quarter - sixties madman Arthur Brown, ska stars The Beat, Tom Robinson, Paul Young, and Huey Morgan are all coming to the Marine.

There's a lot to laugh about with big comedy names such as Ed Byrne, Mark Watson, and Mark Steel, who has already sold out.

Did you miss out on Oasis tickets?! Don't look back in anger because Noasis are on in Lyme instead - with no dynamic pricing to worry about. There's even more nineties nostalgia with The Bluetones.

And so we're here: 2024 is coming to an end as a memorable year for the Marine. We've widened our programme and welcomed many new faces through the door. The best way to support us is by coming along, so thank you. Join us to welcome in 2025 at the Lyme Regis New Year's Eve Party.

Enjoy the Marine!

COMEDY
LYME REGIS COMEDY CLUB

FRIDAY 4 OCTOBER

Four comedians on the bill for our bargain comedy night! As one of the most sought after acts on the comedy circuit, Laura Lexx (As seen on Live at the Apollo and Mock the Week) headlines at all the major comedy venues and has performed extensively throughout the United Kingdom and Internationally. Support comes from Louie Green and Matt Pugsley with hilarious host Tom Glover.

£14.00 advance / £18.00 on the door
 Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.
 Starts at 8:00 P.M.

MUSIC
THE CRAZY WORLD OF ARTHUR BROWN

SATURDAY 5 OCTOBER

Synonymous with his 1968 hit "Fire" and the Hammond-driven "Crazy World" line-up which spawned it. However, his 'God of Hellfire' burned out fast and, in 1970, he returned with a new project: the prog-festival freak-show Kingdom Come followed by a varied solo career.

The initial four band albums, by The Crazy World of Arthur Brown and by Kingdom Come are thrilling, as are his special cameos on other projects.

£23.50 advance / £30.00 on the door
 Bar opens at 7:00 P.M. Standing.
 Starts at 8:00 P.M.

COMEDY / THEATRE

CABARET WITH BALLS

THURSDAY 10 OCTOBER

Charlie Bicknell and Louise Innes embark on a new show with their own inimitable mash of the irreverent and surreal. From Flashdance to Simon and Garfunkel expect AC/DC and even a throw-back to Not the Nine O'Clock news. Cabaret with Balls is a refreshing departure from real life.

COMEDY

FIN TAYLOR:

ASK YOUR MOTHER

FRIDAY 11 OCTOBER

Fresh from the viral success of his hit web series Fin vs The Internet, that comedian your mother doesn't like you seeing shares a new tour of brutally funny stand-up for 2024. When he's not in a roll-neck making influencers squirm, he's appeared on BBC's Live at the Apollo, Have I got News for You and The Mash Report, and Comedy Central's Roast Battle.

£15.00 advance / £18.00 on the door

Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.

Starts at 8:00 P.M.

MUSIC

THE BEAT

SATURDAY 12 OCTOBER

Remember Mirror in the Bathroom? One of the key bands of the U.K. ska revival of the late '70s and early '80s, the Beat achieved a near-perfect balance of pop melodies and taut rhythms that made them stars in Britain and won them a worldwide following. Support comes from the fantastic Revelation Roots.

£22.00 advance / £25.00 on the door

Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.

Starts at 8:00 P.M. Standing

COMEDY LLOYD GRIFFITH: BAROQUE AND ROLL THURSDAY 17 OCTOBER

Fresh from supporting Jack Whitehall on his 2023 UK arena tour, comedian Lloyd Griffith is back with a brand new show 'Baroque and Roll'. It's a big year for Lloyd, he's turning 40 and with it, the impending midlife crisis - or 'renaissance' as he's insisting it's called; complete with body hair removal, head hair additions, teeth whitening and obviously the obligatory half marathon sign up. It'll be funny and yes, there'll be the odd song or two from that magnificent voice of his.

£18.00 advance / £22.00 on the door
Bar opens at 6:30 P.M.
Starts at 7:30 P.M.

MUSIC THE BLUETONES FRIDAY 18 OCTOBER

Join the nineties nostalgia! The Bluetones first came to prominence in 1995, when their debut release 'Are You Blue Or Are You Blind' broke into the Top 40. The single proved to be the launching pad for a run that saw 14 hit singles and 6 albums follow on from it.

TOM ROBINSON BAND

SATURDAY 19 OCTOBER

Emerging amid the turmoil of late 70s Britain - in a time of punk rock, political unrest and economic gloom. TRB became known for the hit single 2-4-6-8 Motorway, their vocal support of Rock Against Racism and for the anthem Sing If You're Glad To Be Gay, which made the Top Twenty despite a ban by BBC Radio 1. The current Tom Robinson Band pay homage to the original group in this very special gig.

Starts at 8:00 P.M. Standing.

MUSIC

ROZI PLAIN

WEDNESDAY 23 OCTOBER

Over the course of four albums, Plain's hypnotic, gently askew songs have steadily sauntered their way from her birthplace of Winchester, reverberated through the bustling Bristol DIY scene, to where they now emanate from London's creative epicentre. Acquiring a worldliness that's reflected in her travels as a touring musician, each consecutive release has broached new sonic territory, whilst retaining a home-grown intimacy and a familial warmth of spirit.

£17.00 advance / £21.00 on the door

Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.

Starts at 8:00 P.M. Standing

MUSIC

DUB PISTOLS

FRIDAY 6 DECEMBER

A riotous collision of drum & bass, hip-hop, ska, dub and punk, Dub Pistols' maverick approach to music continues to inspire through the generations to this day. Now a slickly drilled outfit, they have lost none of their vitality wherever they rock up to play. They have had major deals with Geffen Records and collaborations with Terry Hall (Specials), Gregory Isaacs, Busta Rhymes, and Horace Andy.

THEATRE

A WINTER'S TAIL

SATURDAY 7 DECEMBER

A play-along theatre adventure: the snow is falling and the solstice is approaching. Ratty is getting ready. She wants everything to be really rat-tastic! But will her friends make it through the snow to the winter woodland revels? Can you help them on their journey? There'll be excitement, adventure, play-acting, games, music, a splattering of silliness and lots of snow!

£8.00 children (under 18) / £13.00 adults

£30.00 family

Two performances one at 11:00 A.M. and another at 2:00 P.M.

MUSIC

SHEELANAGIG

SATURDAY 7 DECEMBER

For nearly two decades this band have brought their array of foot-stomping folk tunes to audiences across the globe. A quintet with a well-stocked armoury of stringed instruments—guitar, fiddle, double bass - with the added energy of flute and drums and a bagful of joint-jumping tunes, these fine musicians create a real dynamic which is inherent in both their furious dance medleys as well as their thoughtfully arranged original pieces.

£19.00 advance / £23.00 on the door

Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.

Starts at 8:00 P.M. Standing

THEATRE

SANTA & SVEN

WEDNESDAY 11 DECEMBER

I don't know if you know, but filling the stockings of every child in the world in just one night is a HUMONGOUS undertaking. It requires planning, team work, dedication and - of course - a sprinkling of Christmas magic. These last few years Santa has taken to recce-ing ahead of the big drop to help Christmas Eve run as smoothly as possible. He brings with him Sven the reindeer handler, his excitable and talented Snow Elf.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

19 - 22 DECEMBER

Hot on the heels of their successful Summer Season of Plays, Gilroy Theatre brings you Charles Dickens' ghost story of Christmas! Bring the whole family to enjoy this tale as old as time and take advantage of our special family ticket.

We meet Ebenezer Scrooge on Christmas Eve, in his counting house, metaphorically counting out his money.

Scrooge is introduced to three ghosts, all of whom have a vital lesson for him.

Will he finally realise that some things are more important than money?
