ACCESSIBILITY

ACCESS

We have level access to our auditorium and downstairs bar. There is an accessible toilet.

Unfortunately our upstairs bar is not accessible by wheelchair.

Our staff and volunteers are happy to help you to enjoy your visit, so please advise us of accessibility requirements by emailing office@marinetheatre.com.

HEARING LOOP

Our hearing loop lets you hear the performance more clearly through your hearing aid. You'll need to switch your hearing aid or CI to the hearing loop setting (also known as the 'T' setting or program). The signal from the hearing loop should cover all seating areas.

CARERS

Carers receive a complimentary ticket when accompanying a ticket holder, but should show an access card with a +1 symbol on it.

To ask for a carer's ticket please email office@marinetheatre.com

SEATING

We can reserve space for wheelchairs and mobility scooters at shows. Seating at standing shows is available for those with access needs; please ask a member of staff.

DOGS

Assistance animals are permitted in the Marine, but pets are not.

MORE?

Tell us ways we can be more accessible! Email suggestions for consideration to office@marinetheatre.com

COMMUNITY

Over the last five years we've been making the Marine an even more important part of the community by widening participation in arts and culture. We welcome performers from diverse backgrounds, so all members of the community are represented on stage. We relaunched the Marine Youth Theatre with bursaries - an introduction to performing for children. There is something for everyone each month. We make sure there are free and cheap events. Increasingly we've created opportunities to perform or get involved with Community Plays, Sunday Sessions, Senior Creative sessions, volunteering, and Play Reading Groups. But if you just want to sit and watch or look at the view, that's fine too!

VOLUNTEERING

Whether it's ushering, hosting performers, or even DIY, there are lots of ways to support the running of our busy venue. If you have time to spare and would like to get involved, please email friends@marinetheatre.com.

WELCOME

I'm struggling to pull out the highlights for you as there are so many great artists on stage at the Marine this season. However, Goldie's show is surely the jewel in the crown. With the 30 year anniversary of his massive album 'Timeless' it is an honour to welcome him and his band to the stage. Also in June, is the Mercury Award nominated alt-rock band The Magic Numbers. This brother-sister combo have sold out The Forum in Kentish Town as well as supporting The Who and playing Glastonbury - not to be missed!

After a few hiccups with the cinema system sound, films are now in full swing. We usually play movies a couple of weeks after they hit the multi-plex cinemas. So please check out our film listings on the website as these are booked later so will not always be in here.

It saddens me to share some very disappointing news with you. Despite the enormous enrichment that we offer to our local community, Lyme Regis Town Council has withdrawn our funding. We are proud to be generating almost all our income but the very small amount of funding that we have had is vital to support activities such the Youth Theatre. Arts venues play such an important role within communities. As well as fulfilling creatives ambitions, coming together reduces loneliness for many and young people gain much through increased confidence. If you are not already a member, please show your support by joining our members today!
See you at the Marine soon

THE YOUNG'UNS 20

FRIDAY 25 APRIL

Much loved folk trio, the Young'uns, celebrate 20 years of singing together. One night in Stockton On Tees, three teenagers heard strange sounds coming from the backroom of a pub. They went in. They heard people singing songs they'd never heard before. Songs without instruments. Songs in their own accents. Songs about places they knew. Folk songs. They joined in. Because they were the youngest ones there by several decades, they were soon labelled 'the Young'uns.'

DAWN LANDES | THE LIBERATED WOMAN'S SONGBOOK

SATURDAY 28 JUNE

With an appeal to bring women's voices back to the forefront, celebrated singer-songwriter Dawn Landes will perform songs from The Liberated Woman's Songbook, a book originally published in 1971 at the height of the Women's Liberation Movement. Dawn and band reimagine folk songs from the canon of women's activism from 1830 to 1970. These tales could not be more prescient; women have been fighting for their voices to be heard for centuries, and these messages are just as timely today as they were then.

£17.00 advance / £21.00 on the door
Unreserved Seating
Bar opens at 7:00 P.M.
Starts at 8:00 P.M.
